RUEF IS WORRIED

San Francisco "Boss" Has Been Shut Off From All Privileges.

BIGGER HOLDS THE FORT

By Decision of Supreme Court the Stern Elisor and Not Friendly Sheriff Is Ruef's Guardian.

No Prisoner In the United States Is Today Under Such Close Espionage.

San Francisco, March 22.—The supreme court, on the request of the attorneys of Abraham Ruef, the central figure in the municipal graft investigation, has dismissed Ruef's application for a writ of habeas corpus to transfer him from the custody of Elizor W. J. Biggy to that of Sheriff O'Neill and to be taken from the St. Francis hotel to the county jail.

"Ruef," said Biggy, "upon looking up authorities, came to the conclusion that the supreme court would sustain the action of Superior Judge Dunne in appointing an elizor and forestall any adverse decision by having the writ dismissed." With the dismissal of the writ the question of a place of detention for Ruef has again arisen. Distrusting the police and the sheriff, Ruef has been kept in the St. Francis hotel pending the decision of the supreme court as to the legality of his detention in the custody of Elizor Biggy. Now that this matter has been dropped by Ruef and his attorneys, the prosecution are casting about to find another place of detention for Ruef. It has been decided to take an apartment or a private house.

Ruef will be taken from the St. Francis within a few days. Perhaps no prisoner in the United States today is so closely guarded. At night Biggy sleeps in the same room with Ruef, two guards are on duty in the room with their eyes constantly on Ruef, one man stands guard in the hall in front of the door, and one man is on duty outside of the one window in the room. In the event of an attempt at rescue or escape the men have orders to kill Ruef.

Owing to fears that he might try to escape or an attempt be made to rescue him, several privileges which have been enjoyed by Ruef have now been cut off. Heretofore Ruef has taken his daily exercise in the halls of the hotel, pacing back and forth in sight of the two guards. This was denied him today, and hereafter he will not be allowed to leave his room. The question of examining his mail and all packages sent to him which have been delivered to him untouched, is under consideration.

The grand jury has resumed the work of investigating the alleged wholesale graft and corruption in the municipal affairs of this city and of probing further into the alleged bribing of the supervisors by the telephone companies, on which twenty-seven indictments have already been based. All of the supervisors who have been seen emphatically denied that they had made confessions to the grand jury.

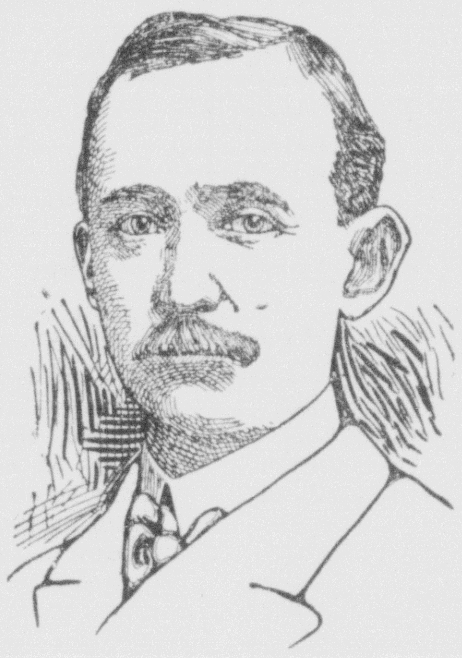
Burton Free Again.

St. Louis, March 22.—Former United States Senator Joseph R. Burton of Kansas, who has been serving a sentence of six months imprisonment in the Iron county jail at Ironton, Mo., was released early this morning. He was convicted of having appeared before the postoffice department in behalf of the Rialto Grain and Securities company of St. Louis while a member of the United States senate and having received compensation for so doing.

THE FINAL OPINION

Supreme Court Defines State's Right to Levy Saloon Tax.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 22.—The famous decision of Judge S. R. Artman of Lebanon that the state has no right to license, regulate or even recognize the liquor traffic for the reason that the traffic is inherently wrong and illegal, has been completely upset by the supreme court in a decision upholding the right of the city of Indianapolis to pass an ordinance fixing a $1,000-a-year license on brewery and distillery agencies. The decision is of great importance, as it establishes the right of the state or city to fix a license on saloons. Judge Artman's decision has not been discussed by the supreme court, as the case was not appealed to it, but the points he raised are overthrown. The decision as to the right of the city or state to license saloons is along lines of a decision rendered several years ago by Judges Elliott and McCabe of the supreme court, in a case very similar to the one determined by Judge Artman. The opinion that has just been handed down was written by Judge Oscar Montgomery, who says that it is a well established fact that the legislative power to license, regulate, restrain or prohibit the liquor traffic is unlimited.



JUDGE MONTGOMERY.

Attorney General Bingham has reversed his recent decision that trust companies have no authority to do a general banking business. In a new opinion rendered at the request of Auditor of State Billheimer, he holds that the trust companies under an act passed March 4, 1892, may do a general banking business. Trust companies outside of Indianapolis have been doing a general banking business. During the recent legislature a bill authorizing all trust companies to do a banking business passed the senate but was killed in the house. Owing to the uncertainty over the question, Auditor Billheimer asked Mr. Bingham to render an opinion clearing it up. The effect of the opinion will be to give the trust companies the authority that was sought in the bill that failed to become a law.

Congressman James E. Watson of Rushville was here today to meet some of his constituents from the Sixth district. He is being urged by many Republicans to run for the nomination for governor next year, but he is not committing himself on that proposition. It is his present impression, however, that he will not make the race for governor. He is a prospective candidate for speaker of the house and is very hopeful of being able to land the place when Uncle Joe Cannon vacates it.

John W. Kern, looking healthier than he has for many years, has returned from several months spent at Ashville, N. C. His friends had heard such distressing reports about his health as to lead them to believe that he would not be cured, but he says that he is stronger than he has been for a long time. He has returned to his office and has plunged into business again. He says that he has gained twenty pounds in weight.

MARINES LANDED

Coasts of Warring Central American Republics Covered by American Gunboats.

SITUATION WELL IN HAND

The Navy Department Expresses Belief That All Foreign Interests Are Properly Safeguarded.

Landing of Blue Jackets at Beleaguered Ports Likely to Prevent Complications.

Washington, March 22.—Bluejackets and marines have been landed from the United States gunboat Marietta at Trujillo and Ceiba and probably at Puerto Cortez, Honduras, in order to protect American interests in those ports. Advices to this effect have been received at the navy department from Commander Fullam of the Marietta. As yet no word has been received as to whether forces have been landed at Central American ports on the Pacific coast side, but undoubtedly this step will be taken if American interests are considered in danger.

The navy department feels that the action taken by Commander Fullam brings the situation completely in hand so far as the safeguarding of trade interests is concerned. In addition to the protection given to Americans, it is felt that the action of this government will relieve foreign governments of the necessity of taking any steps toward making a naval demonstration.

The landing of bluejackets and marines and the policing of both shores of the Central American republics with United States gunboats before trading vessels had been molested in any manner or foreign interests jeopardized, is regarded here as a diplomatic move that will prevent any international complications growing out of the policy of the United States not to permit European demonstrations in Central American or South American waters.

From the meager dispatches received it is understood that Commander Fullam landed a force of about twenty marines from the Marietta at Trujillo, and twenty bluejackets at Ceiba, and then continued his course to Puerto Cortez. The Nicaraguan commander in charge of the invading force at the Honduran port, Trujillo, gave Commander Fullam his promise that American interests and all foreign interests there would be protected and that trading vessels would be permitted to enter and leave the port without molestation, the same as before the capture of the port by the Nicaraguan navy. Both coasts of the warring Central American republics are completely covered by American gunboats.

Zelaya Ready for Peace.

New Orleans, March 22.—President Zelaya of Nicaragua is quoted as acceding to a request of President Roosevelt for arbitration of war troubles in Central America, in a letter received here last night from Bluefields, Nicaragua. The statement of Zelaya is said to have been printed in Bluefields along with President Roosevelt's appeal for peace, which is dated in February.

BOLD EXPRESS ROBBERY

Messenger Hurled from Train Enroute and Strongbox Emptied.

Palestine, Tex., March 22.—As train No. 4 of the International & Great Northern, northbound, was leaving Elkhart, twelve miles below here, Express Messenger Winsley Womack of the Pacific Express company, was knocked in the head and thrown out of the car. He was not missed from the train until Palestine was reached, and a little later a telephone message was received from him at Elkhart, stating that he had been assaulted by robbers. The safe in the car was open when the train reached Palestine. The sheriff and a posse left Palestine at once on a special train for the scene of the robbery.

Valiente Scores Again.

Tangier, March 22.—The Anjera tribesmen, fighting with the troops of the Sultan, have suffered defeat at the hands of the Ben Ismala tribesmen under the leadership of the brigand Valiente. A number of men on both sides are reported to have been killed and wounded. Reinforcements of government troops are going to the front for the purpose of delivering another attack on the Ben Ismalas.

Theft of Costly Jewels.

New York, March 22.—Eighteen thousand dollars worth of jewelry was stolen from the home of Charles Morgan, son of the founder of the Morgan steamship lines, at Orange, N. J. Mrs. Morgan found a drawer in her dressing table disturbed and investigation showed that her jewel-bag was missing.

Used Razor on Fellow Miner.

Jasonville, Ind., March 22.—As the result of a vigorous use of a razor by "Hub" Cornelius, a miner, on Thomas Saseni, a fellow miner, at Vicksburg, this county, Saseni may die, while Cornelius is a fugitive. There was trouble of long standing between the men.

MRS. A. M. HAGERMANN

from the same physical disturbances, and the nature of their duties, in many cases, quickly drift them into the horrors of all kinds of female complaints, organic troubles, ulceration, falling and displacements, or perhaps irregularity or suppression causing backache, nervousness, irritability, and sleeplessness.

Women everywhere should remember that the medicine that holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female ills is made from simple native roots and herbs. For more than thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, regulating the functions perfectly and overcoming pain. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing for child birth and the Change of Life.

Mrs. A. M. Hagermann, of Bay Shore, L. I., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I suffered from a displacement, excessive and painful functions so that I had to lie down or sit still most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman so that I am able to attend to my duties. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see what relief it will give them."

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female illness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. for advice She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Therefore she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health.

FEARED FOR LIFE

Marshal of Greentown Gives Up Position That Had Become Too Strenuous.

FAMILY FEARED RESULTS

Two Recent Attempts to Assassinate Vigorous Exponent of the Law Proved Too Much For Them.

At Earnest Solicitation of Family and Friends Marshal Golding Resigns Office.

Greentown, Ind., March 22.—Theodore Golding, marshal of Greentown, who recently had two shooting affrays with unknown enemies, who tried to assassinate him, has tendered his resignation, and the town board has accepted it. Golding is credited with having been the best marshal ever serving Greentown, and because of his activity against certain lawbreakers, the attempts on his life were made.

He did not wish to retire, but his family and friends, fearing that serious results would follow if he continued to serve, pressed him to give up the position. The town board was also averse to accepting the resignation, but finally did so under protest. Golding's successor has not been named. George Myers, a retired farmer, is an applicant for the office, and he probably will receive the appointment.

SHORTAGE REVEALED

Treasurer of District Miners' Union Resigns Under Fire.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 22.—Secretary-Treasurer John H. Kennedy of District No. 11, United Mine Workers, has sent in his resignation, admitting defalcation and pleading that he is an old man, long in service of the organization, broken in health and "without a dollar in the world" to support his family. The preliminary report of the auditing committee shows a total of $1,150 shortage, most of which was covered up by false entries of the amounts he sent to lodge for strike benefits. The first instance of falsification of the books, as far as found, was a year ago, but the examination goes farther back.

President O'Connor reports that Kennedy is very ill. The nervous strain of the last few months and his final exposure and compulsory resignation brought on a condition which it is thought will cause his death.

Has No Memory of Attack.

Evansville, Ind., March 22.—It is the consensus of opinion of physicians of the city that Josie Gray, victim of the assault last Saturday night, while alone in the R. & G. furniture store, will never be able to tell the name of her assailant. Although convalescing and rational, she does not remember having been injured. Police Chief Brennecke has issued printed circulars calling for the arrest of Guy Prescott, who is under suspicion.

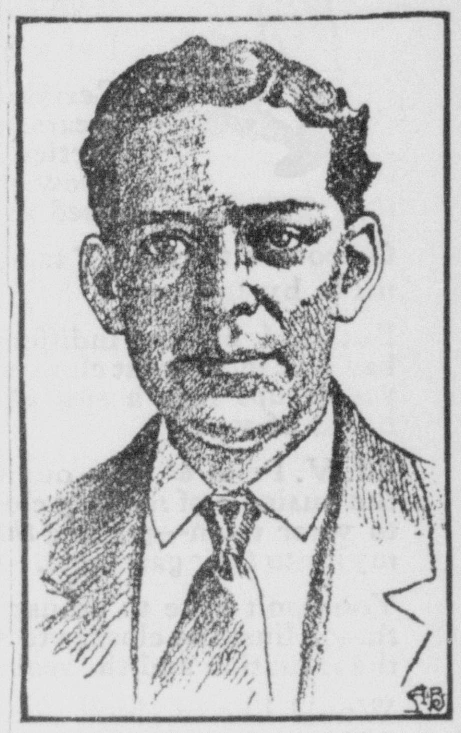
A Mystery of the Night.

Anderson, Ind., March 22.—In a dream Postmaster Grimes pulled out one of his front teeth and carefully placed it on a molding over his bed. He remembers dreaming he had a fight and his adversary knocked out his teeth. Missing the tooth in the morning, search revealed its hiding place. How he managed to get the tooth out is a mystery to him.

Shortage Is Promised.

Evansville, Ind., March 22.—The report of August Leich, investigating the books of Theodore Kevedores, former county recorder, will be made to the county commissioners today. It is positively known there will be a shortage, and the bondsmen say they are ready at a moment's notice to make up the deficit. Kevedore's present whereabouts is unknown.

CENSURED THE MANAGEMENT.



UPTON SINCLAIR.

New York, March 22.—The coroner's inquest into the deaths caused by the fire in Upton Sinclair's Helicon Hall at Englewood, N. J., returned a verdict censuring the management for not providing adequate means of escape in case of fire.

EIGHT AFFIDAVITS

Support Jerome's Contention as to Harry Thaw's Mental State.

New York, March 22.—District Attorney Jerome presented to Justice Fitzgerald eight affidavits in support of the suggestion he made Wednesday in the case of Harry K. Thaw that the defendant is now in such a state of lunacy or insanity as to be incapable of understanding the proceedings against him or making his defense. Mr. Delmas for the defense, stating that their answer to the district attorney's proposition was not ready, Justice Fitzgerald allowed both sides until Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to file such affidavits as they desire with the clerk of the court. There will be no further hearing on the matter of the appointment of a lunacy commission unless Justice Fitzgerald so directs after considering such affidavits and exhibits as are to be offered. The jury was today excused until Monday morning, by which time Justice Fitzgerald is expected to be ready to announce his decision.

COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrappers and attest its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody, Dr. Pierce being desirous of having the search light of investigation turned fully upon his formulæ, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great, blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-on-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption.

Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

TRADE MARK REGISTERED, 1906

Shape

Shape can be put into a suit of clothes made in standard sizes 34, 36, 38 breast measure and it will look like the real thing and men can be found who can put it on and wear it—

But whose shape?

Certainly not the shape of the man who wears it, for it was made for no one in particular, and when being made they knew nothing of the wearer, yet advertised as "tailor-made clothes."

Of course they are "tailor-made clothes"—all clothes are made by tailors.

But good, bad and indifferent tailors make respectively good, bad and indifferent clothes, and the best of tailors cannot put your shape into a suit of clothes when they have never heard of you.

Ed. V. Price & Co., our Chicago Merchant Tailors, are in the business of making clothes for the people who are going to wear them—putting their shape (not the shape of a dummy) into their garments.

You don't have to adjust yourself to their kind of clothes, they adjust the clothes to you. It's the difference between the imitation and the real thing.

FRIDAY MARCH 22, 1907

WE direct the attention of all our readers to our advertising columns. There is some valuable information for you. The wise buyer keeps posted on store news.

A NOTABLE opiinon was rendered Thursday by Chief Justice O. H. Montgomery, of the Supreme Court, of Indiana, holding valid the Indianapolis ordinance levying a $1,000 liquor tax on brewery and distillery agencies. Something is said of this opinion in another column.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER takes the public into his confidence and tells them that watered stocks are a menace to the public good. The people generally have known this for years yet many of them continue to invest in water and hot-air securities. It is the usual plan to overbond public service corporations. There should be an end to this sort of financing and doubtless will be sometime. The light plant in this city is an example of "high finance."

DO NOT forgst that tomorrow is "Bargain Day" for the readers of the Daily REPUCLICAN.

MAKE an investigation for yourself and you will find out that the boy who stays with his school work until he gets through high school at least usually finds and fills a useful place in the world. If he drops out of school because he finds the work hard, as a rule he does not have the staying qualities when he is given a try-out in other positions. He is not equipped for difficult tasks. He was looking for something easier when he abandoned his school work and when any one starts out looking for an easy job he soon has none. It is the boy who has the courage and will power to master difficult tasks that is in demand and when he becomes a man he has more calls for his services than he can fill. Boys, stay with your studies and equip yourselves for places of responsibility.

RECEIVER

Jackson County Loan & Trust Co. to Manage Light Plant.

On the application of some Chicago parties holding several thousand dollars worth of the bonds of the Seymour Gas and Electric Light Company and other parties having claims against the company Judge Shea today appointed the Jackson County Loan and Trust Company receiver for the property with directions to take charge at once and operate the plant. The sheriff's sale of the property set for tomorrow is called off by the court.

Attorneys representing the bond holders and other interests were in court at Brownstown to present the matter to Judge Shea. As soon as the Trust Company was notified of the appointment Mr. Matlock at once asked W. C. Bevins to remain as local manager.

The Madison plant was advertised for sale today and some of the men who were here to look into the local situation went from here to Madison.

Having been equipped with the most modern computing scales made, the addition of the slicing machine and a full line of staple and fancy groceries, vegetables, fruits, etc., he is able to please the most fastidious patron. The stock is well kept, always fresh and clean and courteous treatment is accorded all who deal there. A call will convince you. Best goods, satisfactory prices and prompt service is his motto.

The Indianapolis freight bureau, consisting of nearly all of the large shippers and manufacturers here, has sent to Washington a long complaint against the Big Four, Pennsylvania, Monon, Vandalia, Lake Erie & Western and Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton roads, alleging that they discriminate against Indianapolis in freight rates. They allege that the rates on freight originating in Indianapolis are much higher than on freight that is sent to the same points from Chicago, Cincinnati and other cities. The conclusion reached by the bureau is that Indianapolis is being discriminated against; that its rates are out of alignment as compared to those of other cities named and, therefore, the roads are violating the interstate commerce act.

SCALY SORES AS BIG AS PENNIES

Covered Whole Head and Neck After an Attack of Measles—Hair All Came Out—Doctor's Treatment Had No Effect—Suffered 6 Months

CURED IN 3 WEEKS BY CUTICURA COSTING $1.50

"After having the measles my whole head and neck were covered with scaly sores about as large as a penny. They were just as thick as they could be. My hair all came out. I let the trouble run along, taking the doctor's blood remedies and rubbing on salve, but it did not seem to get any better. It stayed that way for about six months; then I got a set of the Cuticura Remedies, and in about a week I noticed a big difference, and in three weeks it was well entirely and I have not had the trouble any more, and as this was seven years ago, I consider myself cured. I used one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, one box of Cuticura Ointment, and two cakes of Cuticura Soap. I think it a splendid medicine, and I recommend it whenever I can. RAILROAD RUMBLINGS

Conductor Wiley Bates, of Terre Haute, now has charge of Conductor Frances' run on the Southern Indiana while Mr. Frances is taking a week's lay off.

Train No. 1 on the B. & O. S-W did not arrive today till about 12:45. The accommodation was also about an hour late. Most of the trains on the B. & O. S-W were still late as were several Pennsylvania trains.

Another Sensation.

While there has been less drunkenness on the streets perhaps for the past few weeks than there had been for some weeks previous there is still something doing now and then to break the dull monotony. About the time that the attention of Chief of Police Moritz was called to the attempted suicide of a drunk man yesterday afternoon down near the electric light plant two fellows got into a fistic encounter at the Nickel Plate saloon. It is said that they were quarrelling on the inside and were put out of the saloon where the fight was continued. One struck at the other and the blow missing its mark broke a big plate glass into a thousand pieces. The one who struck the blow had his hand badly cut. It will probably cost $30 to $40 at least to put in a new glass.

Wall Street's Fever Subsiding.

New York, March 22.—There was a notable shrinkage in the volume of dealings in stocks Thursday, which was regarded, on the whole, with satisfaction by the financial community. The expansion of dealings lately has been so clearly an added burden to market, as the increase in business was almost wholly on the selling side, that the reduction in volume was welcomed. There was little or none of the urgent selling pressure which has developed at one time or another during a session for many days past.

CHAPTER XII.

THERE were boys in Cairo, of course, and equally of course some of them were bad. The bad ones used to do things to annoy Robert's "Little Missie." Robert proceeded to thrash them upon every proper occasion, and he did it with a thoroughness that left nothing to be desired thereafter. When Robert had thrashed a boy that boy went to bed for repairs. And he was apt to be reticent as to where and how he had received his bruises. That was because Robert always ended a fist encounter with a warning.

"Ef you don't want a double dose o' dis here you'll perhaps obstain f'um mentionin' de name o' de culled gentleman wot gib it ter you."

And the victim usually "obstained." If he didn't it was presently the worse for him.

Robert had been born in the south. He had lived there till his fourteenth year. He had there imbibed certain doctrines of pugnacious chivalry. There had been bred in his bone the conviction that it was every strong man's duty to protect every woman and to punish any disrespect shown to her.

It was through one of Robert's battles that Guilford Duncan became acquainted with his hostess, Barbara Verne. That young woman very rarely appeared in the dining room, and so the young Virginian had scarcely more than met her when one morning on his way to breakfast he came upon a battle between Robert—"free man of color," as he loved to call himself—and three Cairo boys who had waylaid him in order to avenge the punishment he had given a few days before to one of them who had playfully hurled half a brick through Barbara's kitchen window.

When Duncan came upon the battlefield Robert was backed up against a dead wall. Two of his adversaries had gone to grass, and the third was hesitating to prosecute the attack alone. Seeing his hesitation, Bob—great strategist that he was—instantly decided to convert his successful defense into a successful offense without delay. Quitting his defensive position against the wall, he rushed upon his remaining adversary, who promptly retreated without waiting to reckon upon the casualties.

Then Bob jumped upon his other and slowly rising antagonists, knocked them down again and hurriedly exacted of each a "wish I may die" promise to let "Little Missie" alone from that day forth.

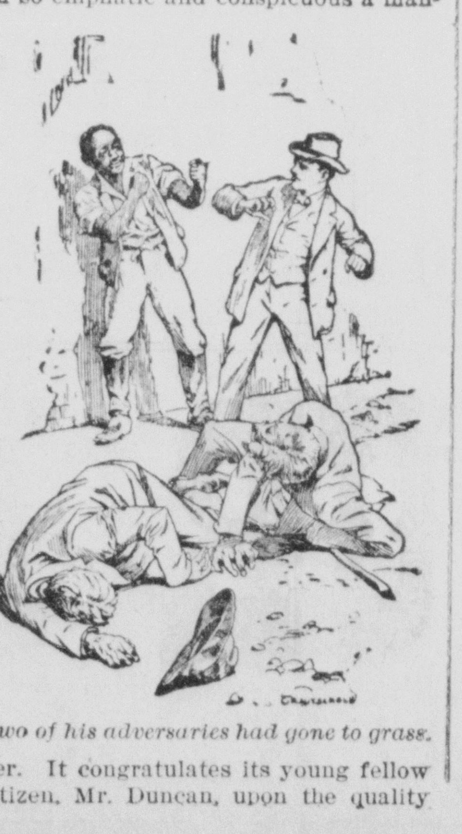
"Good for you, Bob!" exclaimed young Duncan. "But we'll make that promise more binding. Help me, and I'll take these young ruffians before Judge Gross and compel them to give bonds for good behavior."

It didn't take long to arraign the culprits, prove that they had thrown a brickbat through Barbara's window and secure an order of the court requiring them to give considerable bonds for good behavior in future.

This brought their parents into court and subjected them to a good deal of annoyance and trouble. They had to give bonds, and, more troublesome still, they had to control their boys. Then again the newspapers published the facts.

In this way Guilford Duncan multiplied his enemies in Cairo. But he had a deep seated conviction that it is worth a man's while to make enemies by doing right. In this matter he had done only right. He had invoked the law for the protection of a woman, and he had completely accomplished his purpose. He cared nothing for the revilings that ensued, but Ober, the man of brains and character who edited the principal newspaper of the town, took the matter up and made much of it.

"This town is barbaric," he wrote in his editorial columns. "It owes sincere thanks to Mr. Guilford Duncan for teaching it that law is supreme; that it is to the law we should appeal in every case of wrongdoing. The parents of the young hoodlums who have been bound over to keep the peace have long needed this lesson. This newspaper rejoices that the lesson has been given in so emphatic and conspicuous a manner. It congratulates its young fellow citizen, Mr. Duncan, upon the quality of his citizenship and upon the results of its activity."



Two of his adversaries had gone to grass.

The entire talk of the little city was of Duncan's activity in haling the hoodlum sons of highly "respectable" parents before a magistrate as a consequence of their battle with a "nigger." On that subject tongues wagged busily pro and con. The friends of the aggrieved parents who had been forced to give bonds for the good behavior of their ill regulated offspring indignantly made a "race issue" of a matter which had nothing whatever to do with race prejudice.

They could not understand how a southerner and an ex-Confederate soldier could thus have taken the part of a "nigger" against "respectable white boys." Others who were clamorous for the "rights of the negro" rejoiced in Duncan as a convert to their doctrine.

Both were wrong, of course. Neither in the remotest way recognized the real impulses of his act—namely, the impulse to protect a woman and the impulse of a law loving citizen to insist upon the equal enforcement of the law for the sake of good order in the community. But Duncan concerned himself with none of these things. He had done his simple duty as a man and as a citizen, and he had no care whatever for consequences.

And yet the consequences were such as vitally affected his entire career in more ways than one. His performance brought him for one thing into close acquaintance with a certain young woman whom he had scarcely known before and whose destiny it was to influence the entire future course of his life.

It was Duncan's habit to sit long and smoke over his final cup of coffee at the evening meal. The other table boarders were accustomed to hurry away as soon as they had swallowed their supper, leaving him in sole possession of the dining room.

On the evening of the day on which the events already related occurred he sat as usual smoking, sipping his coffee and reading the evening newspaper. Presently Barbara Verne entered and with a manner in which extreme shyness was mingled with a resolute determination to do the duty that lay before her approached young Duncan and held out her hand. As he arose deferentially to greet her, taking her proffered hand in his, the girl said:

"I've come to thank you, Mr. Duncan. It was very kind of you—to protect Robert, you know—and me. I'm Barbara Verne. Thank you ever so much."

As she made her little speech the brave but timid girl looked him in the eyes with the embarrassed front of a child set to do a duty mingled with the calm composure of a woman who knows and cherishes the dignity of her womanhood.

Duncan protested that no thanks were due him for doing his simple duty, and after a word or two more the girl quitted the room, while Duncan, gallantly bowing, held the door open for her.

The little interview lasted for less than two minutes, and not an unnecessary word was spoken on either side, yet it seemed to Duncan an event of consequence, as indeed it proved to be.

Something in the girl's voice or manner, or something in her eyes, or something in her grace of movement, her bearing, her mingled simplicity and dignity, or something in all these combined, had mightily impressed him. He had seen little of women in any intimate way, and, while he honored womanhood and deferred to it, as every sound souled man must, he had thought himself quite indifferent to women in their individual personality. But somehow he could not feel so with Barbara Verne, and later in the evening he scourged himself for his folly in continuing to think of her to the interruption of the reading he had set himself to do.

"I will call upon her and become really acquainted with her," he said to himself. "That will cure me of this strange and utterly absurd fascination. Of course the girl must be commonplace in the main, and when I come to realize that, the glamour will fade away."

'Twas Another Governor.

Santa Fe, N. M., March 21.—It has been shown conclusively that the twenty-three deeds to territorial timber lands in the Manzano mountains, purchased at $3 an acre by the Pennsylvania Development company in evasion of a federal statute, were signed and executed in the administration previous to that of Governor Hagerman and that their delivery and sealing by Governor Hagerman were nominal. The department of the interior had in a previous investigation of this matter completely exonerated Governor Hagerman from all blame.

Murder and Arson Charged.

Mayfield, Ky., March 21.—A sensation was caused when Benjamin Parker was indicted and jailed on a charge of murder and arson. The case grew out of the mysterious burning of Parker's boarding house six weeks ago, in the debris of which the charred body of a stranger was found.

BLOOD POISON

CURE YOURSELF AT HOME

Most persons who are afflicted with Contagious Blood Poison hesitate to go to a physician for several reasons. In the first place the expense is heavy, and they know that the inevitable treatment will be mercury and potash, strong minerals that act with disastrous effects on the delicate parts of the system, and which do not, after all, really cure the disease. What they want is a safe, reliable treatment that can be taken at home and a perfect cure made of this loathsome disorder without unnecessary exposure or expense. Such a remedy is S. S. S.—it is the only medicine that goes down to the very bottom of the trouble and drives out the last trace of the poison so that there are never any signs of its return. It does not contain a particle of mineral in any form, and after removing the disease from the circulation builds up every part of the system by its fine vegetable tonic properties. S. S. S. attacks the trouble at its head and not only permanently cures the disease for the one afflicted, but so purifies the blood that future offspring is insured against infection. S. S. S. may be taken in the privacy of your home and a perfect cure made of this hateful and loathsome trouble. For the assistance of those who are curing themselves with S. S. S. we have prepared a special book on Contagious Blood Poison which contains instructions of great value to all blood poison sufferers. We will be glad to send a copy of this book free, and if additional instructions or advice is wanted, our physicians will furnish it without charge.

Costly Error.

J. E. Henderson and Henry J. Zollman, of Bedford, bought 3,000 acres of Texas oil land, platting 600 acres into lots, which they sold to Bedford people, the purpose being to develop the field through the Bedford Land and Oil company, which they formed

An error made by the stenographer who wrote out the deeds has caused a serious loss to the promoters. One of the former owners sold his undivided one-half interest but in writing the deed it was worded:

"I sell an undivided one-half of my interest," in stead of "my undivided one-half interest in said land."

This man has since died, and the land became valuable and his heirs refuse anything in reason for their one-fourth interest. The promoters are refunding money paid them by Bedford people for lots, and they alone will be heavy losers.

Weak Lungs

its cod liver oil elements heal and strengthen the lungs

Many people inherit weak lungs which are likely to be attacked by consumption. So also are lungs weakened by disease or by a stubborn hacking cough.

No matter what the cause Vinol strengthens weak lungs and gives one the power to throw off wasting diseases.

The reason that Vinol has much power to heal and strengthen is because it contains in a highly concentrated form all of the curative, medicinal and strength-creating elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, with the useless, nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron added.

So sure are we of that Vinol will do that we ask every person in Seymour suffering from weak lungs, stubborn hacking coughs or any wasting diseases to try Vinol on our off to return money if it fails. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Seymour, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

Have your measure taken for your spring suit at Dehler's.

Postmaster Resigns.

Dr. S. W. Shields has sent in his resignation as postmaster at Ewing. He has held this position for about ten years, and while he feels grateful to the public for the consideration shown him in the past, he thinks he has held the place long enough. He has been an efficient and accommodating postmaster. After his resignation had been sent in, a petition, signed by almost every patron of the office, was sent in to have W. B. Sage appointed as Dr. Shields' successor. Mr. Sage is one of Brownstown's best business men. He is pleasant, accommodating and in every way well qualified for the office and Uncle Sam would make no mistake in appointing him for the place.

Sets Date For Encampment.

Wayne for May 22, 23 and 24, one day later than the dates originally decided upon. The change was requested by the Ft. Wayne committee. The order urges all posts within fifty miles of Ft. SUICIDE ALARM

Drunken Man Pulled From Railway Track, Next Draws a Razor.

About 3:30 Thursday afternoon word was sent up town that a man had attempted to commit suicide near the Seymour Gas and Electric Light plant. On investigation the man was found to be still alive and not much hurt, only a little jagged. It was very difficult to get at the facts for the stories that were told were very conflicting.

A drunken man who gave his name as William Henderson went staggering down the railway track near the curve at the west end of St. Louis avenue. When opposite the electric light plant he lay down on the ground near the track and grasped the T-rail with his hands. Albert Reed (better known as Dick Duggins,) a boy about fifteen years of age, saw him and pulled him off the track while Elza Clemens, a boy some two years younger, took off his cap and flagged the switch engine, which was just then coming up the track. The engine came to a stop and then pulled ahead while the Reed boy hung to the drunk man to keep him off the track. Kate Courts, who lives near the place of the excitement, helped to push Henderson down the south side of the high embankment. Then, as two or three of the parties who were near say, he pulled a razor from his coat pocket and drew it across his neck. It seems that Reed and the Courts woman struggled with him and succeeded in getting the razor away from him. The Reed boy had a slice cut out of the back of his thumb which he claims was done by the razor when it was still in Henderson's hands. When Chief of Police Moritz arrived a few minutes later no razor was to be found and the Courts woman claimed not to have seen any razor.

Whether Henderson had any intention of committing suicide or not he succeeded in creating quite a sensation down in that part of the city. Policeman Moritz took charge of Henderson and locked him up in the city jail.

Henderson was brought before Mayor H. R. Kyte this morning where he pleaded guilty to a charge of associ. ting and was given a fine of $10 and costs, amounting to a total of $20.80 and ten days in jail. Moritz took him to Brownstown this morning on No. 7 where he will remain for about thirty-one days if none of the fine is paid.

He is now endeavoring to get the government to consider it with a view to giving it a trial.

IMPROVING

Business Good For Months and Still Increasing.

Not for years have the business interests of Seymour in general experienced a better business than during the past six months and almost every day we learn of some firm or firms that are preparing to enlarge their business and their business rooms, or have already begun actual work. Some of these have been reported in these columns and all of them will be.

The new candy store of Chrest Lakos, known as the Greek candy store, and which opened only a few weeks ago, on S. Chestnut street, has received such patronage that the proprietor has decided to go into business much more extensively at the same location. A new soda fountain was purchased more than two weeks ago and will be installed at the store early in April, after which time ice cream sodas will be furnished the year round. A new piano orchestra has been purchased and the same is expected to arrive here tomorrow. Twelve new tables and fifty new chairs have been placed in the room. A new partition has been put in and the whole interior is being repainted and repapered. Mr. Lakos has purchased a new ice cream outfit and will make his own ice cream.

The Vande Walle Music Company will become jobbers for the Victor Talking machines for Southern Indiana, and orders in the surrounding cities will be filled from here. The basement of the building now occupied by Mr. Vande Walle is to be made a store room. The first floor is also to be changed so as to have a regular piano room and more room will be made in which to display sheet music. A branch store has been opened at Mitchell and the intention is to open one at Columbus by next fall. Mr. Vande Walle also has a number of retail men at other places including Brownstown, Crothersville and Scottsburg. Over 1,500 records are the sales reported by this company within two weeks. Watch the columns of the REPUBLICAN during the next month and you will see that many other enterprising merchants of this city will have some surprises in store for us. All of these will be noted from time to time. Don't knock but when you see some improvements going on in your home city tell your friends about it.

Graessle-Mercer Plant.

It will probably be some ten weeks yet before the Graessle-Mercer Company are ready to do business in their new quarters at the intersection of Pine street and St. Louis avenue. The new forty horse power boiler and the new engine have already been installed and the plumbers and others are now at work on the line shafting and work of that sort. A new feed water heater is being installed which will be a great saving of fuel and it is thought that when it is put in operation the plant can be run on about a thousand pounds of coal per day.

The building will be made very convenient and well suited to the purpose for which it is intended. A number of men were employed yesterday in leveling down the yard around the building and there is some drainage work yet to be looked after.

"In 1907 I had a stomach disease. Some physicians said Dyspepsia some Consumption. One said I would not live until spring. For four years I existed on boiled milk, soda biscuits and doctors perscriptions. I could not digest anything I ate; then I picked up one of your Almanacs and it happened to be my life saver. I bought a fifty-cent bottle of Kodol and the benifit I received from that bottle all the gold in Georga could not buy. In two months I went back to my work as a machinist and in three months I was well and heartyt May you live long and prosper."-C, N. Cornell Ga., 1906. The above is only a sample of this great good that is daily done everywhere by Kodol for dyspepsia. It is sold here by all druggists.

Walsh Sues Paper.

John R. Walsh has filed seven suits against the Chicago News and Victor F. Lawson in which damages aggregating $1,550,000 are demanded. The basis of the suits is a story published in the Chicago News stating that there was a clue to the disappearance of the $173,000 from the sub-treasury at Washington to the effect that the missing money was a part of $300,000 "borrowed" from the sub-treasury to tide the Chicago National Bank over its troubles.

Elder Sweeney Talks.

Elder Z. T. Sweeney has returned to his home at Columbus from the East where he has been for several days on a lecture tour. When asked for an expression on Governor Hanly's veto of the Automobile railroad bill he said that since the title was defective the Governor acted properly. He said that he did not draw the bill, having left that work to others. He says that the bill as drawn would have repealed some laws that would have been hurtful to the interurban roads. Mr. Sweeney says however that he hoped to go right on with his plans for the construction of an automobile road from Seymour to Brownstown, believing with the Governor that the law now in force is sufficient. He announces that their will be a meeting of those directly concerned at Seymour within a few days.

Easter Gowning.

The incongruity of turning Easter into a dress carnival has become as widely recognized as the absurdity of receiving callers indiscriminately on the first day of January, writes Mrs. Osborn, the famous arbiter of styles, in The Delineator for April.

Easter gowning as a general observance, an annual outburst hard on the heels of religion, met its death at the hands of this fine decade of ours, a decade in which every breath is individuality, independence.

Now, while of itself interesting, the change in Easter customs is only a phase of conditions far more significant. For those conditions prove conclusively that woman as a sex is increasingly courageous in matters of dress.

Daily I see evidence of this gratifying development. There is no longer any hard and fast law as to styles for women, and the intelligent are aware of it, indeed are responsible for the new condition.

The April McClure's.

There is much in the April McClure's that you do not want to miss. The leading article by George Kibbe Turner is a study of the sale of dissipation, and, the ruin and disaster that it has brought. "The City of Chicago" is the title, and Mr. Turner shows the tremendous forces that are working to destroy the social organization in every American city. His viewpoint is entirely new.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposep to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and precribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney Co., Toledo Ohio, is the onely constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonfull. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

THUMPING HEADACHES.

Many Seymour Women Have Them But Few Know the Real Cause.

Dull, thumping headaches,
Sick, prostrating headaches,
Dizzy, whirling, blind headaches—
Point to disorders of the kidneys,

Narcotics may ease the pain
But won't cure the cause.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure the kidneys,
Remove uric poisons, purify the blood,
Banish headache, backache, urinary ills.
Here's Seymour testimony to prove it.

Mrs. X. S. A. Gibson, of 306 East Second St., Seymour, Ind., says: 'Previous to using Doan's Kidney Pills I had suffered for a long time from severe pains across the small of my back and lions. I also had depressing headaches, was nervous and restless at night and very lame in the morning. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I procured a box at C. W. Milhous' drug store. A quick and thorough cure resulted and was very gratifying. I gave a statement to his effect in 1899 and am pleased to confirm the same at this time after a lapse of seven years."

Stolen Poultry Returns.

At Leesville the larger part of the good population are and have been for several days troubled with chicken theives. A remarkable and somewhat humorous thing came to pass a few days ago when one of the poultry losers looked out into the pike road and beheld all his fine fowls marching homeward with sheared wings and tails. As a rule the silence of that hamlet is only broken by pike road travelers and the poultry came so quietly back that no commotion was created.

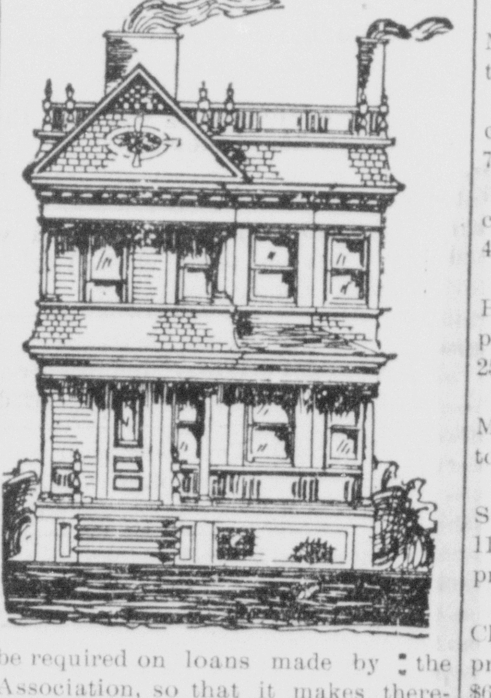
MONEY SAVED

Is Money Made According to The Old Adage.

Series M, of the Cooperative Building and Loan Association, offers every citizen of Seymour and Jackson county on Monday, April 1st another opportunity for money saving. If you want to own a home or invest in a business you can get the money on easy terms from the Association. After April 1st the premium will not be required on loans made by the Association, so that it makes thereafter a straight six per cent loan. It is sometimes urged that interest on the entire loan is paid up to the very last month before the stock matures. That is true, but it is also true that this is offset by the dividends credited to the stock at the close of each quarter. So that as the amount of dues the borrower has paid increases, the amount of dividends credited to his stock increases, until at the close of the series his interest payment is almost wholly equalled by the credits to him in dividends, and he really pays interest only on the amount not yet paid in.



The Cooperative is conducted by a board of directors made up of safe and careful business men. The interests of the stockholders are looked after in every possible way.
